SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT

Jefferson, N. H., Feb. 1, 1936.

The present school year opened with the Meadows school combined in one room under the instructions of Miss Isabel Rhome, who formerly taught the lower grades. At Riverton Miss Grace Enman, a teacher of two years' experience, is now in charge and Miss Margaret Rhome, a graduate of the University of New Hampshire, was elected to replace Miss Baker who resigned to accept a more advanced position.

In the other schools the teachers are the same as for the previous year.

Counting the Junior and Senior High as one school, six schools are now being maintained with a total enrollment at present of 129 pupils and seven teachers.

As a result of frequent visits or supervision and inspection and also from tests given, I believe that the work is going well and pupils are making accomplishment commensurate with their ability.

One of the noteworthy features of the year has been the formation of a school orchestra of eight pieces at the Highlands School. Considering their age and experience, these pupils do remarkably well on their several instruments.

The annual health examination has been given by the School Physician and through a special allotment of State funds for the purpose, a school nurse is now making monthly health inspection visits to the various schools.

The average percentage of attendance for the last complete school year shows an increase over the previous year. Good attendance is an important factor in good school progress.

The School Board and Superintendent have carefully estimated a proposed budget for the coming year and this estimate will be found in another part of this report.
